

KMICS Hand-in-Hand Club

At Keshav Memorial Institute of Commerce and Sciences (KMICS), the Hand-in-Hand Club is dedicated to fostering human excellence and social responsibility. Affiliated with Osmania University and a unit of the Keshav Memorial Educational Society, our club aims to create awareness about social, national, and global issues while upholding the values of integrity, truthfulness, and cultural richness.

Our primary focus is on supporting and uplifting marginalized communities. We engage in various initiatives, including assisting orphanages, old-age homes, and providing support to those in need. Our efforts are geared towards promoting social justice and ensuring the well-being of the less fortunate.

Additionally, we are committed to environmental sustainability through our "Green Society" initiative, which emphasizes the importance of caring for our planet and its inhabitants. Through these activities, we aim to instill a sense of responsibility and empathy among students, encouraging them to contribute positively to society.

The Hand-in-Hand Club continues to make a meaningful impact, embodying our commitment to service and excellence.

KMICS HAND IN HAND CLUB ACTIVITIES

Independence Day Celebration at Sevabharathi

On August 15, 2023, the Hand in Hand Club, a service-oriented club of KMICS, organized an event at Sevabharathi to celebrate Independence Day. The club engaged in various activities promoting women empowerment, yoga, and education. These activities aimed to inspire and empower the residents of the ashram. A quiz on general knowledge was also conducted, engaging participants in an informative and enjoyable manner.

The club members distributed dictionaries, books, and pens to support the educational needs of the ashram's residents. This initiative not only celebrated the spirit of independence but also reinforced the importance of continuous learning and self-improvement. The event was a testament to the club's commitment to community service and its dedication to fostering a supportive and empowering environment for all.

Nari Shakti

Report

“Nari Shakti” was an event conducted by the Hand in Hand Club of KMICS as a part of its formal launch at the Swami Vivekanand Hall on 13th September 2023. The event mainly focused on Women Enlightenment and Empowerment. The event was presided over by Chief Guest Preeti Damerla, Junior Civil Judge; alumni of Keshav Memorial College of Law, Academic Director Dr J. Nageswara Rao Sir, Vice-Principal Ms Santhi Kumari Ma’am. Speaking on the occasion all the three emphasized on the limitless potential within each girl and women. They motivated the students present to dream big and achieve the impossible.

The event started by invoking the blessings of the heavenly deities and lighting of the ceremonial lamp. The aim and objectives of the club were shared followed by 2 short inspirational videos. An interactive quiz show was the highlight of the event with winners walking away with prizes.

The event ended by giving a fitting tribute to the Motherland by singing the National Anthem. The motto of the club is to join hands and lend a helping hand under the aegis of Keshav Memorial Educational Society

Voting Awareness Campaign

Report

In an effort to promote civic responsibility and democratic participation, the Hand in Hand Club of Keshav Memorial Institute of Commerce and Sciences spearheaded a voting awareness campaign on November 25, 2023. Students, led by Principal Mrs. V Shanti and Chief Convenor Mrs. L Deepika and a few other members of the staff engaged in a dynamic initiative to underscore the significance of voting.

The campaign encompassed Narayanguda and aimed to reach residents with the crucial message of the importance of exercising their right to vote. Students energetically distributed pamphlets, which emphasized the power of each vote, and highlighted the impact of active participation in shaping the community's future.

Banners and placards carried by the students, served as visual aids to amplify the campaign's message.

The enthusiastic response from the community was evident. Conversations centered around the role of voting in shaping local governance and its impact on the overall development of the region.

In conclusion, the voting awareness campaign conducted by the Hand in Hand Club of Keshav Memorial Institute of Commerce and Sciences proved to be a commendable effort in fostering a culture of active citizenship.

Club Activity – Helping Needy people

On Dec 26, 2023, Vishwa Vatsalaya Manch Trust generously donated Rs. 1,00,000 (one lakh) to support the girl students of our college. The cheque was formally handed over to the Joint Secretary of our society, Sri B. Sridhar Reddy, and the principal, Smt. V. Shanthi, to ensure proper disbursement among eligible candidates.

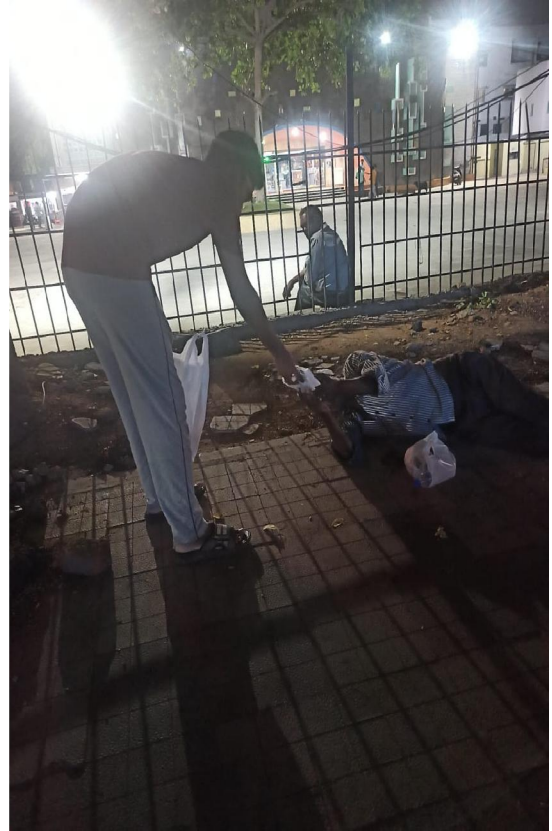

This initiative aimed to aid financially disadvantaged students on January 3, 2024, providing them with much-needed support for their educational pursuits. The distribution of the funds was overseen by Dr. A. V. Subrahmanyam, Secretary, KMES. He ensured the amount was divided appropriately and handed out to the deserving girl students and their mothers, thereby reinforcing the trust's commitment to promoting education among the underprivileged.

This act of kindness highlights the trust's dedication to empowering young women through education, contributing significantly to their academic and personal growth.

Food Donation Drive by Hand in Hand Club

On December 21, 2023, the Hand in Hand Club of KMICS conducted a food donation drive on the streets to support needy individuals. Club members distributed nutritious meals to numerous homeless and underprivileged people, demonstrating their commitment to community service and welfare. This initiative aimed to alleviate hunger and provide immediate relief to those in need. The club's efforts were well-received, making a significant impact on the lives of many and reflecting the club's dedication to helping the less fortunate.

Donation Initiative by Hand in Hand Club

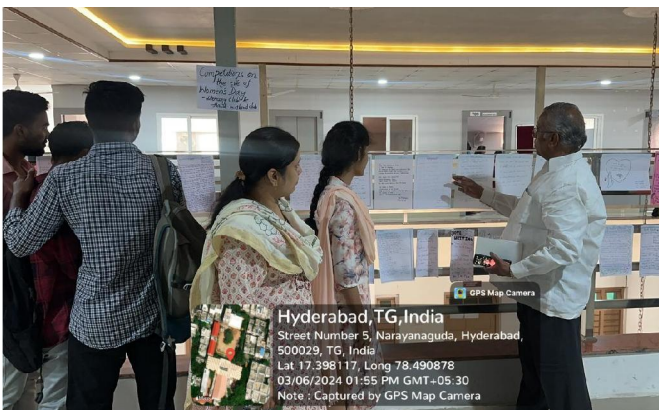

Report

The Hand in Hand Club of KMICS showcased exemplary generosity through a recent initiative. Student volunteers diligently collected voluntary donations from staff members, reflecting the club's commitment to community service. The funds raised were thoughtfully donated to Keshav Memorial School on 14 Feb 2024, aimed at supporting 10th-grade students by providing them with essential Geometry boxes. This act of kindness not only met a practical need but also embodied the joy of giving back, fostering a sense of solidarity and compassion among the students and staff involved. The program was a testament to the enduring spirit of community and mutual support at KMICS.

Report

On the eve of Women's Day, the Hand in Hand Club and the Literary Club of KMICS jointly organized a series of engaging competitions for students and faculty. Held on March 5th and 6th, 2024, the events included elocution, fashion designing, essay writing, quote writing, poem slam, and article writing, showcasing the diverse talents within the community. Additionally, special games were arranged for the women faculty members, adding a fun and celebratory element to the occasion. The competitions aimed to foster creativity, confidence, and camaraderie among participants while honoring the spirit of Women's Day. Both students and faculty enthusiastically participated, making the event a memorable and enriching experience. The collaborative effort of the clubs highlighted the importance of gender equality and empowerment, reinforcing the community's commitment to celebrating and supporting women's contributions in all spheres of life.

Commendable Plantation Program at College Campus

Report

The college campus witnessed a commendable plantation program, led by the principal, faculty, club members, and NCC students on 24.06.2024. This initiative aimed to enhance greenery and promote environmental awareness within the campus. Faculty members and students worked together, planting various saplings across the grounds. The principal's active participation underscored the significance of the event, inspiring everyone to contribute to a greener future. The collaborative effort not only beautified the campus but also instilled a sense of responsibility towards environmental conservation among the participants. This drive marked a significant step towards creating a sustainable and eco-friendly campus environment.

Rakhi Collection Drive for Soldiers

Report

The KMICS Hand in Hand Club is proud to report the successful execution of our Rakhi collection drive aimed at honoring our brave soldiers on the 16th of July, 2024. Our girl students took the initiative to bring their Rakhis to college, demonstrating their heartfelt gratitude and support for the unwavering commitment of our servicemen to our nation's security.

Suhasini, a member of the Sanskrithi Foundation, played a crucial role in this initiative. She received the collected Rakhis from us and ensured their timely delivery to our soldiers. This act of solidarity and respect was met with enthusiastic participation from our female students, who displayed deep respect and appreciation for the soldiers' sacrifices.

The initiative was more than just a collection drive; it was a powerful message of unity and gratitude. The participation of our students was overwhelming, and their contributions were a testament to their understanding of the importance of honoring those who protect our nation. Each Rakhi sent to the soldiers carried the pride, love, and warmth of our college, making this initiative profoundly meaningful.

We are grateful to everyone who supported this noble cause. This activity not only strengthened our community's spirit but also served as a small yet significant way to convey our respect and admiration for the brave hearts defending our country.
