

Vag Vardhini-The literary club organised " Listen & Answer " competition on 16/02/2024, as a part of monthly club activities. The purpose of a "listen and answer" activity is to engage participants in active listening and critical thinking. In this activity, participants were asked to listen to the given recording and write down the gist of it in their own words. Overall, the "listen and answer" activity is a valuable & educational tool that promotes active engagement, critical thinking, and meaningful discussion, while also providing opportunities for personal and intellectual growth.

