SAS-SUPPORT A STUDENT SCHOLARSHIP

BRIEF REPORT ON SAS

SAS committee received 92 application forms from I and II year students for scholarship. On 17-02-2022 the committee interviewed 47 students as per the norms of SAS.

On interaction with the students, it was found that their living conditions are pathetic. Almost all the students are dependent on their mother whose total income is less than Rs.5000/-pm and living in a small room by paying Rs 1500/- to Rs2000/- per month as rent. Students are doing part time jobs to continue their studies. They are not having any help from their grandparents or other relatives.

After face to face interactions with the students the committee has come to a conclusion that the most deserved and needy students 21 and deserved students 13. Total 34 students have been selected from 47 students.

The following 34 students are selected after analysis on Academic/Economic/ Parental Background of the students through face to face interview.
