A REPORT ON 'CAMPUS RECRUITMENT TRAINING (August 16, 2019 - October 31, 2019)

The CRT classes conducted from August to October 2019 for duration of 70 hours provided participants with a holistic preparation for campus placements, focusing on aptitude, logical reasoning, communication skills, and resume writing. The program equipped participants with essential skills, boosted their confidence, and prepared them for successful entry into the corporate world. Moving forward continued efforts to refine and update the curriculum will ensure that future batches benefit from the latest industry trends and best practices in recruitment training.

Under Pavan Kumar's adept guidance, three batches of students were accommodated, with each batch comprising 122, 85, and 89 individuals respectively. Pavan Kumar's expertise facilitated an interactive learning environment, where students actively participated in discussions and practical exercises, ensuring a comprehensive understanding of the material. The curriculum covered four key areas: aptitude, logical reasoning, communication skills, and resume writing. Communication skills were refined through exercises in public speaking, interpersonal communication, and presentation. Finally, participants learned effective resume writing techniques to showcase their strengths to potential employers. Through a blend of lectures, practical exercises, and mock interviews, the program aimed to enhance participants' employability and confidence for the recruitment process.
