A REPORT ON 'CAMPUS RECRUITMENT TRAINING

The Campus Recruitment Training (CRT) classes commenced on July 22, 2020, spanning duration of 90 hours. Led by Malcolm, an experienced trainer in employability skills, the program covered vital topics including aptitude, logical reasoning, communication skills, resume writing, and interview preparation. Three batches of students, comprising 124, 93, and 109 individuals respectively, benefited from Malcolm's expert guidance tailored to their needs. Throughout the sessions, emphasis was placed on interactive learning, fostering a supportive environment where students actively engaged in discussions and practical exercises. Progress was monitored through regular assessments and feedback sessions, ensuring personalized attention to each student's development. Regular assessments and feedback sessions were conducted to monitor progress and provide timely interventions.

As a result of the comprehensive training, students exhibited significant improvement in various competencies, leading to enhanced confidence and preparedness for job interviews and recruitment processes. The success of the program was evident as several students secured placements in esteemed companies, underscoring the effectiveness of Malcolm's guidance and the structured curriculum
