Independence Day Celebrations

Independence Day is annually celebrated on 15 August in KMICS. As a tradition program starts with havan followed with parade, Flag Hoisting and distributing certificates to the students for various cultural and sports activities. Dignitaries from Army/Police background are invited; they share their experiences and enrich the students with nationalism. KMICS conduct social projects, like awareness campaign, Flag collection drive; Tree plantation etc. This helps the institute to invoke patriotism among the students and make them aware about the sacrifices of national heroes.
