ABOUT THE SOCIETY

Keshav Memorial Educational Society was established in the year 1940 by Pandit Vinayak Rao Vidyalankar in remembrance of his father Justice Keshav Rao Koratkar, a Judge of the then erstwhile Hyderabad High Court. During that period, the instruction in Educational institutions, in Hyderabad state under Nizams rule was mostly in Urdu medium. The Keshav Memorial Educational Society was established with the objectives of providing education through mother tongue i.e. Hindi and Telugu medium, then after some years in English medium. The institution became the center of Nationalistic activity and freedom struggle at a time when the Hyderabad state continued under Nizam’s rule even after 15th August 1947. The National Tricolour flag was hoisted in the campus of Keshav Memorial Educational Society overcoming serious restrictions. Over the years the educational institutions under the society have grown in number, size and quality covering various fields of education. The Society proudly celebrated the Platinum Jubilee, 75 years in the year 2014-15.

The Society has the following Institutions :

- Keshav Memorial High School (English Medium) (1940)
- Keshav Memorial Junior College (1974)
