

VISION

The NCC is a responsive, learning, and continuously evolving organization. Its activity is guided by certain Core Values that we endeavor to instill among all ranks of the NCC. These include the following:

1. A sense of patriotic commitment to encourage cadets to contribute to national development.
2. Respect for diversities in religion, language, culture, ethnicity, lifestyle, and habitat to instill a sense of National unity and social cohesion.
3. Abiding commitment to learn and adhere to the norms and values enshrined in the Indian Constitution.
4. Understanding the value of a just and impartial exercise of authority.
5. Ability to participate in community development and other social programs.
6. A healthy lifestyle is free of substance abuse and other unhealthy practices.
7. Sensitivity to the needs of poor and socially disadvantaged fellow citizens.
8. Inculcating habits of restraint and self-awareness.
9. Understanding the values of honesty, truthfulness, self-sacrifice, perseverance, and hard work.
10. Respect for knowledge, wisdom, and the power of ideas.

MISSION

The National Cadet Corps (NCC) has multiple missions, including developing responsible leaders and team players, and helping youth become useful citizens:

- Develop qualities

The NCC aims to develop qualities like character, courage, discipline, leadership, and sportsmanship in young people. They also want to instill ideals like selfless service and a secular outlook.

- Develop leaders

The NCC wants to develop resourceful, responsible, resilient, and loyal leaders and team players through challenging military-related activities. They offer a variety of adventure and experiential programs to help achieve this goal.

- Create an environment

The NCC also aims to create an environment that motivates young people to pursue careers in the armed forces. They do this by conducting training programs, seminars, and workshops, as well as organizing visits to defense establishments.

- Inculcate social service

The NCC also aims to instill a habit of social service in young people. They do this by organizing activities like anti-malaria and anti-polythene drives, blood donation, tree plantation, and health and hygiene initiatives

OBJECTIVES:

- The 'Aims' of the NCC laid out in 1988 have stood the test of time and continue to meet the requirements expected of it in the current socio-economic scenario of the country.
 - The NCC aims at developing character, comradeship, discipline, a secular outlook, the spirit of adventure, and ideals of selfless service amongst young citizens.
- It aims at creating a pool of organized, trained, and motivated youth with leadership qualities in all walks of life, who will serve the Nation regardless of which career they choose
